

Perry Outreach Center

April 2026

From the Director

The Rocket Community Fund is proud to partner with the Perry Outreach Center for a can food drive during the month of March 2026. The food drive is held at Chrysler House 719 Griswold St on the corner of fort St. Please join us in supporting a stronger, more empowered community.

Chrysler House Gives Back

Perry Outreach Center

Bedrock is proud to partner with the Perry Outreach Center, a local nonprofit dedicated to uplifting individuals and families in the Southwest of Detroit, for a canned food drive starting March 1. All collected donations will be delivered to Perry Outreach Center by the property team on April 1. Please join us in supporting a stronger, more empowered community.

Class Start in Spring

Youth Music

Our youth Music program starts in September. We will have classes for learning Keyboards, guitar, bass and saxophone. Classes are free and open to children 5 to 16 years old. You know a child that might be interested, call the Perry Center to register Adult Computers

Adult Computer Classes

We restart Adult Computer Classes on Monday April 6, 6-7:30p.m. for 1.5 hours. Classes will be every other week. The last class is on June 15. We cover basic skills for business including Word, Excel, File Management and A.I. Call the Perry Center to Register.
